**NOTE: It is believed that the Coronavirus contributed to the exam success of these students due to increased anxiety due to the uncertainty of the pandemic coupled with difficulty scheduling exams (testing centers were closed). We also noted that student exam success decreased once the students started working as full-time sonographers due to working different shifts, working extra hours, and taking call. As an action plan, we are reaching out to these students to offer post-graduate test support through Gulfcoast Ultrasound online board exam prep to support their success to become credentialed sonographers.
